CSLEA Bargaining Update

The CSLEA Negotiations Team will return to the bargaining table with the State on Wednesday and Thursday this week in an effort to reach a tentative agreement on the few remaining outstanding issues. CSLEA is optimistic it will be able to finalize a total tentative agreement for review and recommendation by the full CSLEA Board of Directors.

The Attempt To Decertify CSLEA

As you may be aware, there is an attempt by another organization to decertify the California Statewide Law Enforcement Association.

In the world of labor, this sometimes happens at contract time. It is a small window of opportunity in which other labor groups can attempt to take our public safety and consumer protection professionals. Read more.

POC: It's Not The First Time

This is not the first time POC has wanted a piece of CSLEA's membership. In previous attempts, POC tried and failed to sever the sworn peace officer-members from the non-sworn. Now, POC wants the non-sworn members of CSLEA to join them. What's Different Now?

A Message From CSLEA President Alan Barcelona

I want to thank you, in advance, for your patience as we approach two hurdles in our jobs of supporting you in your careers and your livelihood.

The first is negotiating a contract for our 7,000 law enforcement, public safety and consumer protection professionals. The Great Recession has taken its toll on our paychecks, savings and spending power. We have received your message loud and clear, "enough is enough." Your elected board members experience what you experience and it is, at times, exasperating.

I hear the growing impatience as it is announced another bargaining unit has reached a contract agreement with the state. I hear the requests for more information as to what is on the bargaining table. I hope you can respect the need to keep this information confidential during the negotiations period. We are still in the bargaining process but hope to finalize a new tentative agreement shortly.

The second hurdle involves POC's attempt with AFSCME to decertify CSLEA. This requires a lot of CSLEA time and effort, and patience on your part, as we work to keep you informed of ...read more.
