

CSLEA LEGISLATIVE UPDATE

Alan Barcelona

President
California Statewide Law
Enforcement Association

March 19, 2018

On Friday March 16, 2018, Governor Jerry Brown announced several appointments including that of Susan Fanelli as chief deputy director of policy and programs at the California Department of Public Health. Below you will find the governor's press announcement.

Fraternally,

Alan Barcelona
President, CSLEA

Governor Brown Announces Appointments

SACRAMENTO- Governor Edmund G. Brown Jr. announced the following appointments:

Susan Fanelli, 55, of Orangevale, has been appointed chief deputy director of policy and programs at the California Department of Public Health, where she has been assistant director since 2015 and has served in several positions in the Emergency Preparedness Office from 2003 to 2015, including deputy director, acting deputy director and assistant deputy director. Fanelli served in several positions at the California Department of Health Services from 2002 to 2006, including staff services manager in the Program Support Section, associate governmental program analyst in the Office of Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act Compliance and staff services analyst. She was director of information services at the Institute for Fiduciary Education from 1996 to 2001. Fanelli was president, owner and instructor at Capitol Seminars and Consulting from 1993 to 1996, vice president and editor at Capitol Weekly from 1988 to 1993 and legislative staff manager at Legitech from 1986 to 1988. She earned a Master of Arts degree in political science and public service from the University of California, Davis. This position requires Senate confirmation and the compensation is $164,592. Fanelli is a Republican.

View Press Release for Additional Appointments